Dear Bishop Harrower

Thankyou for contacting my office recently regarding the issue of problem gambling.

Whilst many gamblers are social in nature, I recognise that in some instances, gambling can lead to obscene societal problems. With this view, I look forward to the discussion of compulsory pre-commitment technologies as the legislation is tabled in Parliament.

Again, thankyou for taking the time to contact me and if I can help with anything in the future, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Senator David Bushby
