

What the Arab Spring means for Christians

both here and in the Middle East

2011 was filled with news of political turmoil and social unrest in places like Tunisia, Egypt, Libya, Syria. The effect of this turbulence on minority Christians in these areas has caused increased difficulty.

For those who wish to learn more, and to know how to pray for fellow Christians in the Middle East, a time with Bishop Mouneer Anis of Egypt, hosted by Bishop John Harrower.

2-3pm Saturday 14 January 2012

St. Peter's Church Hall

17-19 Rice St, Port Sorell

Bishop Mouneer Anis is the Bishop of the Anglican Diocese of Egypt with North Africa and the Horn of Africa. He brings his experience and insights of gospel ministry in the Middle East and is in Tasmania to speak at the CMS Summerview Mission Conference.

Bishop John Harrower is the Bishop of Tasmania. Bishop John is a former missionary to Argentina and has brought his cross-cultural experience to the study of Islam. He holds a number of seminars throughout the state and speaks regularly on the topic of "Loving our Muslim Neighbours"

This public meeting is part of the Church Missionary Society Summerview conference in Port Sorell. For more information contact Rev'd Will Briggs, 0428695156, will.briggs@anglicantas.org.au
