Alex Schadenberg is head of the Euthanasia Prevention Coalition based in Canada and is also chair of its international arm.

Alex has been working on the issue of euthanasia in a professional capacity for 13 years now across Canada, the United States and internationally.

Alex is an engaging speaker with an important message for all Tasmanians.

An event not to be missed!

Alex is on a whistlestop visit to Australia speaking in Melbourne, Adelaide and Hobart and Auckland, New Zealand. For further information about events in these places, contact Paul Russell at director@noeuthanasia.org.au

Alex's visit to Hobart is organised by HOPE: preventing euthanasia & assisted suicide and is supported locally by the Australian Christian Lobby and Family Voice Australia.

HOPE is a national grassroots organisation with the sole focus of keeping Australia free from euthanasia & assisted suicide legislation.
